DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment filed 01/21/2009 has been entered and made of record. Claims 1-24, 29-58 and 60-63 are pending in the application.

Drawings

2. Replacement Drawings filed 05/22/2006 have been approved by the examiner.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. Information Disclosure Statement filed 01/21/2009 has been considered by the examiner.

Response to Arguments

4. In response to applicant's persuasive arguments (see pages 20-38 of the remarks filed 01/21/0/2009) with respect to the rejection of claims 1-24, 29-58 and 60-63) under 35 USC 102(b) and 103(a), the rejections are withdrawn. However upon further consideration, a new ground of rejection has been established as below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 53-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent¹ and recent Federal ¹ Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876).

Circuit decisions² indicate that a statutory "process" under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim recites a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim neither transforms underlying subject matter nor is positively tied to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore does not qualify as a statutory process. For example the method for developing a three-dimensional electronic model representative of an object including steps of combining and texturing is of sufficient breadth that it would be reasonably interpreted as a series of steps completely performed mentally, verbally or without a machine.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Claims 1-24, 29-52, 60-63 are allowed.

In response to applicant's persuasive arguments (see pages 20-38 of the remarks filed 01/21/0/2009) with respect to the rejection of claims 1-24, 29-52 and 60-

63) under 35 USC 102(b) and 103(a), the rejections are withdrawn and therefore these claims are allowed now.
